

Kazuhiro Fujita

Managing Director
Certified Public Accountant / Certified Public Tax Accountant

Biography

Kazuhiro Fujita was appointed as Senior Advisor to Tokyo Kyodo Accounting Office in October 2012 and has since that date, supported execution of financial advisory and due diligence projects, including cross-border transactions.

Kazuhiro graduated from Keio University's Faculty of Economics and in 1990 joined Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC where he was involved in statutory audits of mega-banks and other financial institutions. In that role he also provided support to firms in respect of public offerings and the strengthening of their internal management systems. In 1998 he moved to Deloitte Tohmatsu Consulting Co., Ltd. where he managed a number of venture investments. Kazuhiro led projects for major energy and manufacturing companies aimed at improving group business management which oftentimes involved organizational restructures. In 2001 he was transferred to Deloitte Consulting in New York where until 2007, he provided business valuation and financial advisory services to U.S. based firms' in respect of their investment projects, as well as supporting the build of business management infrastructure for financial institutions, automotive suppliers, manufacturers of office equipment and electronics devices, a travel agency and so forth. During this same period he also served as Principal Executive Officer for ABeam Consulting Co., Ltd. (formerly Deloitte Tohmatsu Consulting Co., Ltd.), and as Partner in Global Business Services, part of IBM Japan, Ltd.

Practice Areas

Corporate Finance, Financial Advisory Service, Process / Management Consulting etc

Junri Imaizumi

Managing Director Certified Public Accountant

Biography

Junri Imaizumi passed the Certified Public Accountant examination before graduating from Keio University, and there after joined a foreign consulting company where he provided counsel to clients in a variety of industries, assisting them in areas such as planning and strategy formulation, the streamlining of management systems, and the restructuring of business models.

More recently he has supported clients in relation to complex management issues such as corporate revitalization and reconstruction, M&A and management integration, restructure and risk management of group companies and in doing so has collaborated with his wide overseas network and experts in a variety of fields.

Junri was appointed as partner of Deloitte Tohmatsu Consulting Co., Ltd. and Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC. in 1999 and in 2008 he was appointed as Executive Officer & Managing Director of Frontier Management, Inc.

Practice Areas

Corporate Revitalization and Reconstruction, M&A ,Management integration, restructure and risk management of group companies

Yoshikazu Noda

Managing Director

Biography

Yoshikazu Noda is a Managing Director at Tokyo Kyodo FAS Co., Ltd and has over 30 years of experience in investment banking. Prior to joining Tokyo Kyodo FAS Co., Ltd, Yoshikazu held a variety of management positions in Japan and America with major investment banks including RBS Securities, BNP Securities, Bank of America, and Merrill Lynch (NY Head Office).

Yoshikazu, uniquely, has extensive experience in both Capital Market products (such as securitized products, derivative and alternative products) and Banking products (i.e. M&A, underwriting, listing and funding origination). Before joining the investment banking world, Yoshikazu worked at a Japanese leasing company where he gained extensive knowledge about asset based products in the aircraft, ship and real estate area. Yoshikazu holds a B.A degree in Finance / Accounting from Meiji University in Tokyo.

Practice Areas

Financial Advisory Service(M&A, Project Finance and Corporate Finance), Advisory Service for Capital policy, Advisory Service for Business expansion abroad